Authorization Release of Non-Institutional Charges

Federal student financial aid can only cover “institutional charges” as defined by the US Department of Education. This definition includes current year charges for tuition and fees. Unless authorization is received, federal financial aid cannot be used to cover non-institutional charges. (For example: books in the bookstore, educational supplies, lab fees, and other student fees)

I authorize Northwest State Community College to apply federal student financial aid for any non-institutional charges on your account.

I understand that this authorization will remain in effect until I submit a written request to cancel this authorization.

Authorization to Apply Federal Financial Aid to Prior-Year Charges

Federal student financial aid can only cover the “current” academic year institutional charges. Current year charges include Summer 2021, Fall 2021, and Spring 2022. To use the current academic year’s financial aid to pay for prior year charges, you must provide written authorization. Federal regulations allow up to $200 of a prior year’s charges to be paid by your current year’s financial aid.

I authorize Northwest State Community College to apply my federal student financial aid to pay up to $200 of any prior year charges if applicable.

I understand that this authorization will remain in effect until I submit a written request to cancel this authorization.
