THE CENTER FOR LIFELONG LEARNING PRESENTS A MEET & GREET AT NORTHWEST STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE ON NOVEMBER 5TH

ARCHBOLD, OHIO – The Center for Lifelong Learning is planning a “Meet and Greet” so save the date! The new coordinator, Debbie Wikstrom, is holding a reservation only meet and greet for the members of the Lifelong Learning Center community on Thursday, November 5, 2020.

TWO SESSIONS

There will be two (2) face to face sessions: one from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM and another from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM. In addition, two (2) Zoom sessions will be offered at these same times.

This event will be held in the George Voinovich Auditorium on the west end of campus in E-42. Registration is required for each time and slot and will consist of only thirty (30) people at each face to face session. Zoom sessions are unlimited but you must have a reliable email address, internet connection or smartphone.

HOW TO REGISTER

Please RSVP by Monday, November 2, 2020 to Debbie Wikstrom, Coordinator for the Center for Lifelong Learning at dwikstrom@NorthwestState.edu or 419-944-6195. Make certain to specify your preference of face to face in the morning or afternoon sessions or the Zoom sessions.

COVID-19 protocols are required which includes face coverings and social distancing practices.
