Dear Fellow Lifelong Learners,

Welcome to the Spring 2023 newsletter from the Center for Lifelong Learning at Northwest State Community College. I hope that each of you are healthy, safe and well.

I am writing with exciting news for the 2023 lifelong learning calendar where we are planning several events, including some trips, that will engage, educate, broaden and inform our community. Our first lecture will begin this February and will continue throughout each month.

The Life and Administration of the nation's 19th President, Rutherford B. Hayes

Featured Speaker: Kevin Moore, Curator of Artifacts at the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library and Museums in Fremont, Ohio and part-time American History faculty at Northwest State Community College.

Friday, February 17th, NSCC building C (Room C200), 9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Kevin Moore is the Curator of Artifacts at the Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Library and Museums in Fremont, Ohio. He is responsible for caring for the museum's collection of 20,000+ objects and designing its annual rotating exhibits. A graduate of the MA history program at BGSU, Kevin has also taught American History at Northwest State Community College for 10 years. He will be presenting about the life and administration of the nation's 19th president, Rutherford B. Hayes.

Join us for a hot breakfast from 9:00 a.m., followed by our speaker from 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

TBD

Featured Speaker:
